

Creating a Culture of High Performance

How do you change your organisation's environment and culture to maximise performance and talent?

This interactive session will assist leaders and managers to consider their role in creating and sustaining a high performance environment. The session will cover;

- What a high performing team and culture looks like
- Stages of culture building and what leaders need to do to progress and retain their people
- Dialogue and techniques to use at each stage when creating a high performing team
- Common mistakes when implementing a performance culture

The Facilitator

Rebecca Cushway is a workplace psychologist and Managing Director of Careers Excelled. Rebecca has 15 years experience working with corporate organisations throughout Australia on Cultural Change, Leadership Development, Team Building, Talent Management and a range of learning and development programs across industries.
